With an Introduction by
Fr. Alexander Garklavs

Meno by Plato is a thought-provoking Socratic dialogue that investigates the nature of virtue and knowledge. Through engaging conversations, Socrates challenges the notion of innate knowledge and explores the concept of recollection. Meno's paradox and the search for universal truths make this work a timeless exploration of philosophical inquiry.

With his extensive academic background, Dr. Peter Gilbert earned his doctorate in Patristics from the Catholic University of America in 1995. His teaching experience spans various esteemed institutions, including three years at an Orthodox seminary in Albania, seven years at St. John's College in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and Seton Hall University in South Orange, New Jersey.

In 2011, Dr. Gilbert commenced his teaching journey at the Lyceum in Cleveland, where he has since imparted his wisdom through a diverse range of courses. His areas of expertise encompass the Old and New Testaments, Greek and Latin languages, Medieval History, Writing, and Drama. Driven by his passion for continuous learning and spiritual growth, Gilbert dedicates his chanting talents to Sts. Constantine & Helen.
